- (d) that the application contains a material misrepresentation;
- (e) that the application fraudulently affects the rights of the holder of a plant breeder's right or of the person to whom provisional protection has been granted in terms of section 14;
- (f) that the applicant refuses or has failed or is not able to propose an acceptable denomination;
- (g) that the propagation of the variety in question would require repeated use of propagating material of another variety for which plant breeders' rights have been granted to or applied for by another person, unless such propagating material is used under a licence issued in terms of section 25 or 27;
- (h) that the description submitted does not clearly describe the variety; or
- (i) that, where such application has been preceded by an application by or on behalf of the same applicant for protection of the same variety in a convention country or an agreement country, the description submitted to him differs from the description submitted in such preceding application or that the description in such preceding application does not describe a new variety referred to in section 2.

15. Effect of provisional protection

While a protective direction is in force, the variety in respect of which it was issued shall be protected as if a plant breeder's right had been granted in respect thereof, and anything that would constitute an infringement of a plant breeder's right or would be actionable in proceedings by the holder of such right, shall, if it is done with reference to a variety so protected, be actionable.

16. Termination of provisional protection

(1) A protective direction issued under section 14 shall, subject to the provisions of subsection (2), cease to be of force on the date on which the registrar finally allows or refuses the application for a plant breeder's right in respect of the variety for which the protective direction was issued.

(2) A protective direction—

- (a) may be withdrawn at an earlier date by the registrar if, in his opinion, circumstances justify the withdrawal; and

(b) The registrar may require that a person whose application for a plant breeders' right is being considered, furnish him with a written undertaking or a suitable guarantee regarding a payment referred to in paragraph (a), before he takes steps to obtain the results of tests and trials with the variety concerned in terms of an agreement referred to in section 5A.

(b) The grounds on which the decision is based shall not be published in the said notice nor be open for inspection except by order of a court.

21. Period of plant breeder's right

A plant breeder's right shall be granted for the period prescribed in respect of the kind of plant in question, which period shall be calculated from the date on which a certificate of registration is issued under paragraph (a) of section 20(2).

(3) It shall not be an infringement of a plant breeder's right if a person who procured any propagating material of a new variety in a manner which does not infringe any right of the holder of the relevant plant breeder's right—

- (a) resells it;
- (b) sells any plant, propagating material or product derived therefrom for purposes other than the further propagation or multiplication thereof: Provided that the provisions of this paragraph shall not permit the sale of a product if such sale is in terms of subsection (1A) subject to a plant breeder's right; or
